

⑥ Data modeling is a structured representation of various texts, symbols and diagrams that shows how data is stored, organized and accessed.

— A well designed data model ensures data integrity and empowers accuracy e.g. SQL
~~Microsoft~~ Databricks, Snowflake
Snowflake.com

⑦ Data mining is a process of using huge datasets to analyze statistically, machine learning, and database techniques to reveal hidden patterns, correlations and anomalies.

— Business uses data mining to cut costs (IBM)

↳ Data mining is the process of discovering patterns in a large dataset. e.g. cybersecurity and fraud detection.

⑧ Is a system that we use to access the data within a database.

⑨ Microsoft SQL server - is a comprehensive RDBMS developed by Microsoft for enterprise-level application.

⑩ Redis - An in memory key-value data store used primarily as a cache or message broker for high-speed performance.